5 Ways to Get More Podcast Listeners This Week

A simple, soul-aligned visibility boost for spiritual women podcasters

1. ❤️ Share One Episode with Heart ❤️

Choose an episode you're proud of and share it with a personal note.
Explain why you created it, who it's for, or what you hope it shifts.
Quick Win: Warmth + authenticity can double your listens this week.

2. 🎙️Add One Spoken Call-to-Action 🎙️

Tell listeners what to do next:

- Share the episode
- Screenshot + tag you
- Join your email list

No Tech Needed: Your voice is the CTA.

3. ✨Post a Micro-Clip or Quote✨

Turn a powerful moment into:

- A 10–20 second reel
- A quote graphic
- A mini audiogram

Quick Win: Short clips create curiosity that leads back to your podcast.

4. 📤Make Sharing Easy📤

Add this line to your episode descriptions:
"If this helped you, share it with one woman who needs it."
Spiritual Perspective: Sacred service spreads through connection.

5. 🌙Take One Aligned Visibility Action🌙

Choose ONE action that feels light and intuitive:

- Share an episode in stories
- Post a behind-the-scenes photo
- Ask your audience a question
- Share a personal story
- Go live for 3 minutes

Aligned Action: Momentum comes from intuitive steps.

✨ Gentle Reminder

Your podcast is a sacred channel for your voice and the women who are meant to find you.
Small, consistent actions create powerful ripple effects.
